

Roberts Vaux

Roberts Vaux is the first Chairman of the Bluffton Public Development Corporation, adding to his more than 40-year legal career and community activism.

Vaux established his law firm in 1973, a year after graduating from University of South Carolina's Law School. He is currently a managing partner with Vaux & Marscher.

Vaux has been leading community, governmental commissions and non-profit boards since the time he became a lawyer. Giving his time and talent to civic duty is one of Vaux's major focuses.

Vaux's current and former positions include the following:

- Chairman, Town of Bluffton's Beautification Committee
- Member, Beaufort County Southern Corridor Beautification Board
- Ex-Officio Board Member, Bluffton Self Help
- Member, Beaufort County Sales Tax Advisory Board
- Co-Founder, Beaufort Memorial Hospital Foundation
- Chairman, Broad River Health Care
- Chairman, Board of Trustees/Beaufort Memorial Hospital
- Co-Founder and first Chairman, Hilton Head Bar Association
- Chairman, Beaufort County Medical Services Commission
- Assistant Director, Heritage Golf Classic

In 1984, Vaux was also appointed assistant solicitor for Beaufort County and he is also legal counsel for the Town of Yemassee.

Vaux was born in Colleton County, South Carolina. His hometown, Smoaks, is 1.6 square miles.

Vaux has lived in Bluffton since 1976 and in Beaufort County since 1946.
